

MEETING PROFESSIONALS INTERNATIONAL

"Industry Holiday Breakfast"

Friday, December 4, 2009

Halekulani, Ballroom I

Featuring:

Tim Johns, President and CEO, Bishop Museum

Donalyn Dela Cruz, Public Affairs Director, Bishop Museum

After a three year renovation, the Hawaiian Hall has reopened and has again emerged as Bishop Museum's premier gallery. The historic Hall tells the story of a thriving Hawaiian culture and rich history within its three floors, and is a place where both residents and visitors alike can learn about the legacies and cultural histories of the Hawaiian people.

The Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum was established in 1889 by Charles Reed Bishop in memory of his beloved wife.

A hui hou kākou ma laila – we hope to see you there!
